Re: Annual 47 C.F.R. §64.2009(e) CPNI Certification
For calendar year 2011
Form 499 Filer ID: 814731
EB Docket 06-36

Date: February 2, 2012

I, Brian Asplund, certify that I am an officer of the company named above, and acting as an agent of the company, that I have personal knowledge that the company has established operating procedures that are adequate to ensure compliance with the Commission's CPNI rules. See 47 C.F.R. § 2001 et seq.

Attached to this certification in an accompanying statement explaining how the company's procedures ensure that the company is in compliance with the requirements set forth in section 64.2001 et seq. of the Commission's rules.

The company has not taken any actions (proceeding instituted or petitions filed by a company at either state commissions, the court system, or at the Commission against data brokers) against data brokers in the past year. Companies must report on any information that they have with respect to the processes pretexters are using to attempt to access CPNI, and what steps companies are taking to protect CPNI.

The company has not received any customer complaints in the past year concerning the unauthorized release of CPNI (number of customer complaints a company has received related to unauthorized access to CPNI, or unauthorized disclosure of CPNI, broken down by category or complaint, e.g., instances of improper access by employees, instances of improper disclosure to individuals not authorized to receive the information, or instances of improper access to online information by individuals not authorized to view the information).

FCC Mail Room

Circle Telephone & Electric, LLC (CTE) is a rural local exchange carrier that provides local wireline telecommunication services to the residents of Circle, a remote village in interior Alaska.

When a new customer requests service, the customers' billing information and phone number is provided to AT&T in compliance with AT&T's CARE procedures. As a Feature Group C office, AT&T is the only interexchange telecommunication provider in the Circle serving area.

Over the past year, no actions were taken by CTE against data brokers and no customer complaints were received concerning the release of unauthorized information.
